

WHY NOT WRITE A STORY 7

The Badgers' Christmas

It was a bitterly cold winter night in the wood. Christmas Eve had arrived, and the children were looking forward to a visit from a certain man.

Please send us your story.

Deep in the wildwood, the badgers were also thinking about Christmas. The cubs had been born in February, so this was their first Christmas. Mum had told them all of the stories she'd heard from her Mum.

Could you write the story of how Santa came for the badger cubs? What do you think they would ask for?
