

Citizenship 1 Key stage 2 - Who else looks after animals?

Discuss: What is a 'volunteer'?

How many different agencies can you think of who use volunteers?

Why do you think people volunteer?

What do charities do?

Why do we need them?

Go to this website: <http://durhamwt.myzen.co.uk/wp/> Write a short passage to say what you think Durham Wildlife Trust does.

A large yellow rectangular area with a green border, intended for writing. It contains ten horizontal dotted lines for text. In the top right corner, there is a cartoon illustration of a brown eagle with its wings spread, perched on a small blue and yellow bird. In the bottom left corner, there is a cartoon illustration of an orange and black monarch butterfly.

Click on 'Volunteer'. How much does the Wildlife Trust depend on volunteers?

Handwriting practice area with a yellow background and a green border. It contains seven horizontal dotted lines for writing. An illustration of a boy with a backpack is positioned on the left side of the page.

What sort of things might you do as a reserves volunteer?

Handwriting practice area with a yellow background and a green border. It contains seven horizontal dotted lines for writing. An illustration of a woman with a bag and a fox are positioned on the right and bottom-left sides of the page, respectively.

Have a look through the rest of the site to see what the Wildlife Trust is all about.

Now go to this website <http://www.durhamcountybadgers.co.uk/> and find out how Durham Badger Group works.

Why does the Badger Group exist?

.....

.....

.....

.....

The members are from all walks of life.

Why do you think badgers need protection?

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Discuss as a group what you think about that.